Gale

The roads which one travels to become a Bachelor of Arts are of four dimensions in Time and Space. At Knox, we each travel these roads and come to some sort of different end. Or is it an end?

Activities

Activity — that which makes worlds go round and grade averages low.

TIME to come to school.
The bags and boxes are packed. The car (or train or bus) is loaded.

One arrives, greets friends and unpacks.

The flurry starts again for another year.

Tests done, books bought,
we sit back in anticipation.

SPACE to meet the newest generation of green bows and beanies and exuberance. Space to slip the grip, to pick up where we left off last June.

Most Roads Lead To Old Main

Who knows whom you'll meet there?

HOMECOMING — reigned over by Queen Barbara Cady and Princesses Karen Kuhfuss and Mary Lou Watkins was the usual gala affair.

WEEKEND of wonder . . . We wonder what happened to the football team, the weather, the Phi Delt float.

Some of us wandered to the dance, others to the third floor of the Custer or BV to see the alums.

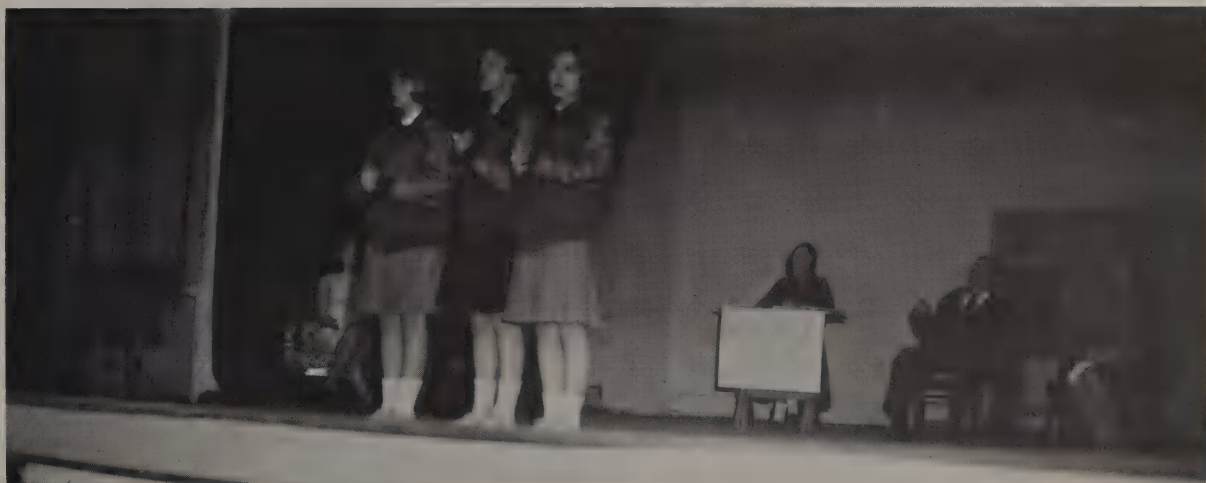

RUSH comes, then Initiation (into the subtler things of life).

SERENE and timeless Knox —
Another candle on the cake.
"Viewed from the top,"
it was a fine birthday.

Old Main Weathers All Storms

TIME has taught it many lessons. It should pass them on to its inhabitants.

TIME for study and finals.
Then the Sno-Ball and the Military Ball with Honorary Colonel Diane Melby.

Time out for vocations

HOSTED by the «cream of the crop,» the visiting consultants let us know what an Occupation is.

Time out for vacations

BESTED by nothing else, Flunk Day is for
Time, as a stuff, to be wasted.

What A Weltanschauung!

The Sporting Life

Not every one is an athlete or a letter winner.

There is still time for the desire if not the ability.

Part of any Liberal Education . . .
the Humanity around us.

An Education In The Arts

An Education In The Sciences

Some people never enter this door. Others never leave.

An Education In Good Cuisine

Some Play . . .

The place just hums with Time to be wasted . . .
building floats, making mums, playing pool.
These are the less academic activities . . .

Others Attempt Study

After all, that's what we're here for.

LANDMARKS for us.
The roads we have known.
The Time spent traveling through the space we can.

EARMARKS of success —
a tassel, a degree, a sadness —
the reward for these roads traveled. We hope there are many more.

Organizations

Meetings were designed by somebody as a sort of Medieval torture. Now the torture may be modern,
but the idea is still Medieval.

Student Senate

Officers: Sec. Nan Jansen, Pres. Phil Burgess, not pictured are V. P. Dick Redenius and Treas. Phil Erickson.

Senate's greatest achievement this year was discovering the Right Way of doing things which we had been doing wrong for years. President Phil led us in the paths of righteousness to the Central Accounting System, reorganization of campus governments, and playing pin-the-tail-on-the-donkey with the Union Board chairmanship. It was also the year when we could proudly say that everything we accomplished was immediately killed by the bureaucracy of the Student Affairs Committee.

Row 1—B. Young, F. Keros, M. Tanberg
Row 2—K. Kuhfuss, M. Johnson, A. Thompson

Social Board

The mechanics of the Old Social Coordination were changed this year to a Board of Social Workers. Although the organization was new, the problems were still the same old ones. Student Senate and the administration managed to create a few more. The traditional activities were still the Board's—free movies (not too old), dances in the Oak Room, and free coffee and doughnuts. Frank Keros and Marilynne Tanberg managed the business.

Row 2 — D. Baylor, D. Koester, M. Johnson.

Honor Board

Publicizing and enforcing the Honor System, the Honor Board made a customary appearance this year at freshman orientation, thereafter retiring behind closed doors to handle an encouragingly small number of cases.

Campus Chest

Campus Chest has had another one of its great years with no one actually knowing what it was. The carnival was held again and coat-checks were provided at the basketball games.

Row 1 — P. Dorrah, H. Chesky, E. Boehm Chr., J. Aarness. Row 2 — M. Jaegerhuber, L. Schweitzer, Z. Norsigian, J. Arri-goni.

Student Counselors

Coping with dorm water fights, lonesome parents, first-exam jitters and varied contingencies of Knox freshmen's lives, the counselors fought valiantly to help «Knox-ize» the smartest-ever class. Personal rewards compensated, sometimes amply, for their voluntarily assumed worries.

Board of Public Relations

Members of the Board of Public Relations found their job easier this year, being able to scrape the mud from South Cedar Street on the steps of the «new» Union as they foretold of the new Knox College to its prospective freshman class.

The Knox Student

Dave Hebert, Editor

The Student is the «Siwasher's answer to the Cincinnati Inquirer» says the Editor, and who disputes the Editor? Putting a weekly campus-centered (?) newspaper together has many problems which are evident and need not be discussed here. Suffice it to say that a paper came out about every week (plus a special edition at election time— campus not national). After salaries were established at the beginning of the year, Mr. Hebert had no trouble getting an operating staff, some of whom are pictured here.

Last fall, a few very inexperienced but eager people began a year book. They had many ideas. Along the way, their eagerness was replaced by a wanness and their ideas by practicality and necessity. In the spring the staff started asking itself if the _____, _____ book would ever come out no longer caring in what shape it would be. We hope our readers won't care either. We could proceed to tell all the problems that go into producing a yearbook (as could the engravers and printers) but we will tell only next year's staff and hope that they will do better.

Adelphi

The literary and artistic organization meets to discuss student works of poetry, plays, and short stories. They also presented a surrealist play successfully.

Newman Club

To indicate that religion does have a place on a college campus is the presence of this organization. Denis Baylor served as President.

Front: S. Hegy, R. Kinetz, D. Baylor, J. Gleason, R. Nielsen.

Siwasher

Putting out three issues of a magazine containing the artistic creations of those students so inclined is the main duty of this organization. They accomplished it.

Forensics

On campus this year the Forensics organization presented the pros and cons on subjects ranging from open dorms to professional education courses. We blazed a trail to Chicago, Missouri, and Iowa debating socialized medicine, Red China, and right-to-work laws. The Knox teams were invincible when we could get two people to agree long enough on a case to debate

KAWS

With later hours for women, interest in new activities, and discussion of freshman dormitories, KAWS attempted to augment its program of enforcing codes of conduct, dress, and punctuality for Knox women. Along with more important results came fewer late minutes.

House Councils

Whiting Hall House Council bought a sewing machine and a hair dryer and gave three dormitory spreads just to prove that it wasn't as useless as many had propounded. Williston Hall Council made pertinent decisions concerning lost dishes and lost clothes.

YWCA

The «Do-Gooders» of the Knox campus have contributed to the welfare of the community by working with the Mary Davis Home, the Research Hospital, and Girl Scouts.

WKCG

The WKCC staff, largest student organization, spent the year playing do-it-yourself with the new studios in the basement of Whiting Hall and waiting for FM. It seemed like a year filled with the old army line of «Hurry up and wait.» And then finally . . .

Young Republicans

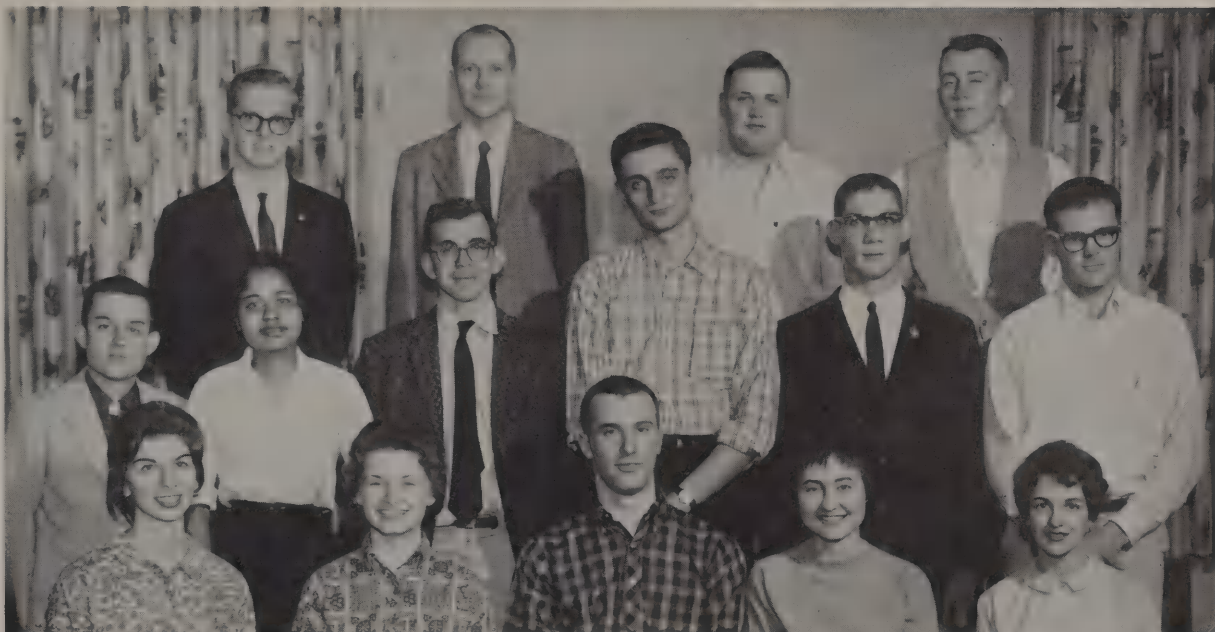

Even though the Grand Old Party was outnumbered nationally last November, it seems that when it comes to picture-taking they hold the majority. The Young Republicans lost out in another way this year by not sponsoring the «campus visitor of the year»—Young Bobbie.

Young Democrats

Victory—this was the keynote of 1960-61. Led by Lee Benham, President, we visited a rally for Governor Kerner, and participated in the motorcade and rally for President Kennedy in Rock Island. Highlighting the campaign was the rally at Beecher for Attorney-General Bob Kennedy.

History Club

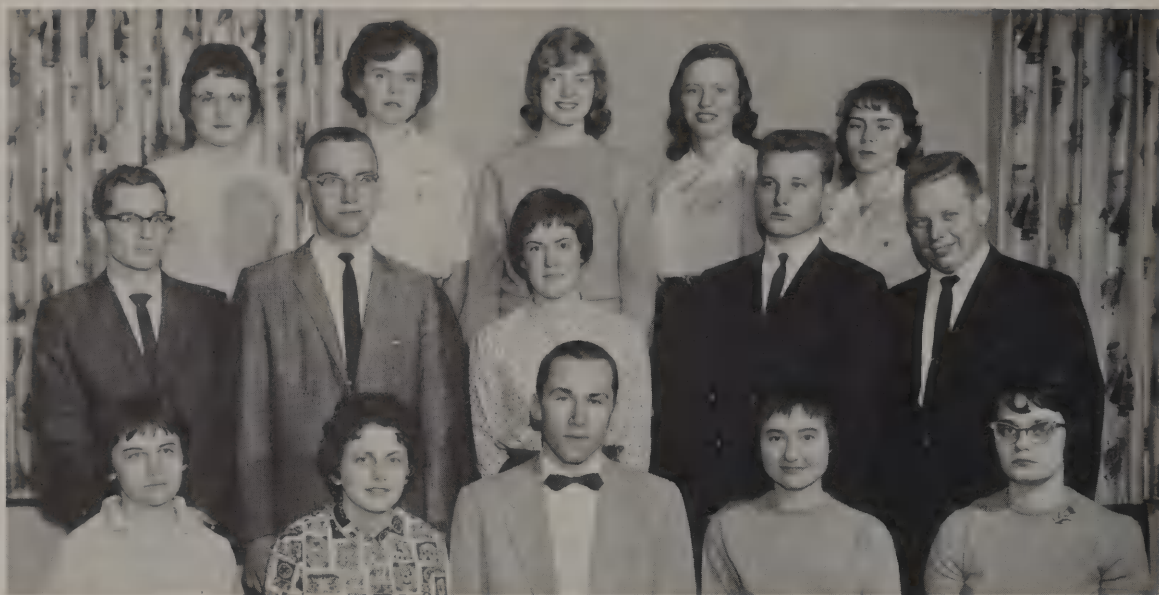

«History is bunk,» said Henry Ford, and we've been debating that ever since. Meanwhile, we sponsored a movie and an essay contest, and rounded up enough automobiles to take several trips this year, including Nauvoo and Springfield.

International Club

Membership in this organization is for those students at Knox who have come from foreign countries. Their activities have not been of any great extent this year. President was T. L. Ho.

German Club

Mit Singen, Sprechen, Sehen, Essen und Trinken, will der Deutsche Verein die Studenten ueber Deutschland und die Deutschen unterrichten und eine WELTANSCHAUUNG entwickeln. Dieses Jahr hatten wir einige Vortraege, Kinos und andere Abende.

International Relations Club

This year the IRC has been quite active in promoting an understanding of world affairs. The club has held several «tea talks» with members of the faculty and distinguished visitors to our campus. Officers for the year were Jack Holmes, President; Dave Jensen, Vice-President; Dennis DeSmet, Secretary; Rod Crist, Treasurer.

Mortar Board

The hats got terrifically heavy. Finding little improvements that we could (or wanted) to handle was not particularly easy. When we did decide to do something, we were able to carry out that which had been assigned to us.

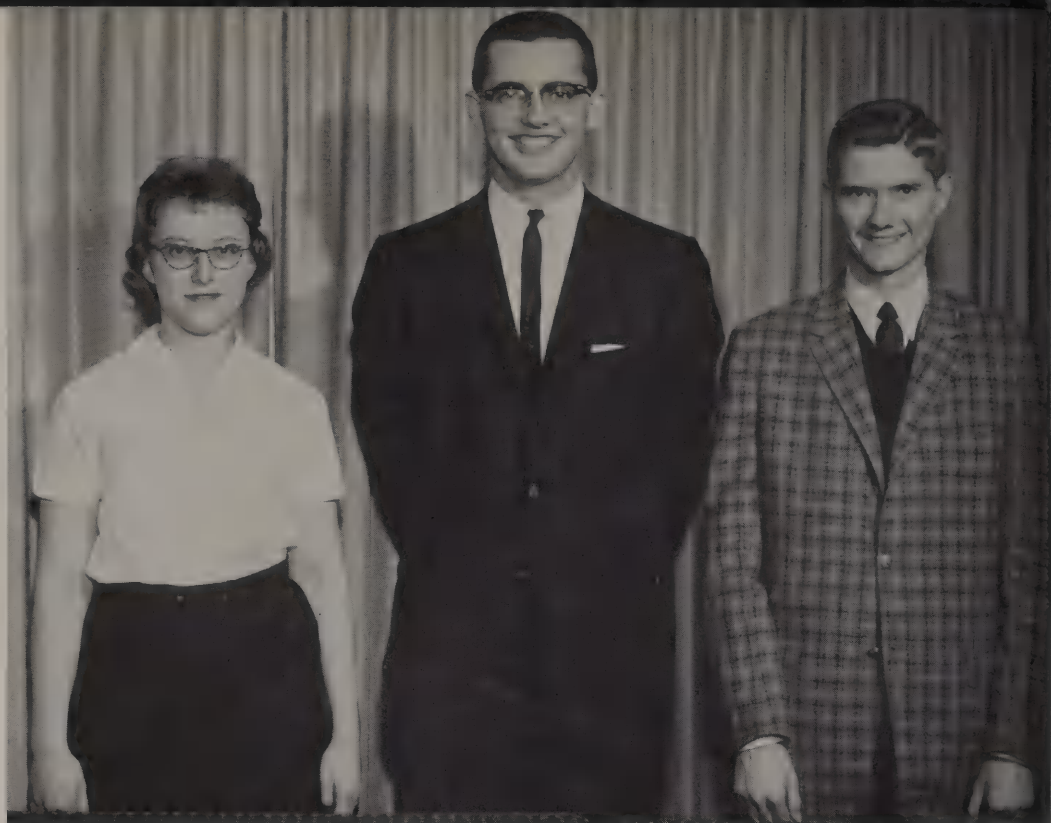

Friars

Mortar Board would like to petition to become an honorary like the Friars—one that does not meet except to elect new members and have its picture taken.

Phi Beta Kappa

Limiting membership to those who have a specific grade average, Phi Beta Kappa is the most exclusive fraternity at Knox. Pictured here are only a few. The ranks were swelled in the spring.

Pi Sigma Alpha

Beta Sigma was a veritable beehive of activity this year. Coffee-talks and films on current world affairs, and various book displays in the library were sponsored. Weekly radio programs and two spring banquets proved to be the highlights of the year's activities.

Freshman Council

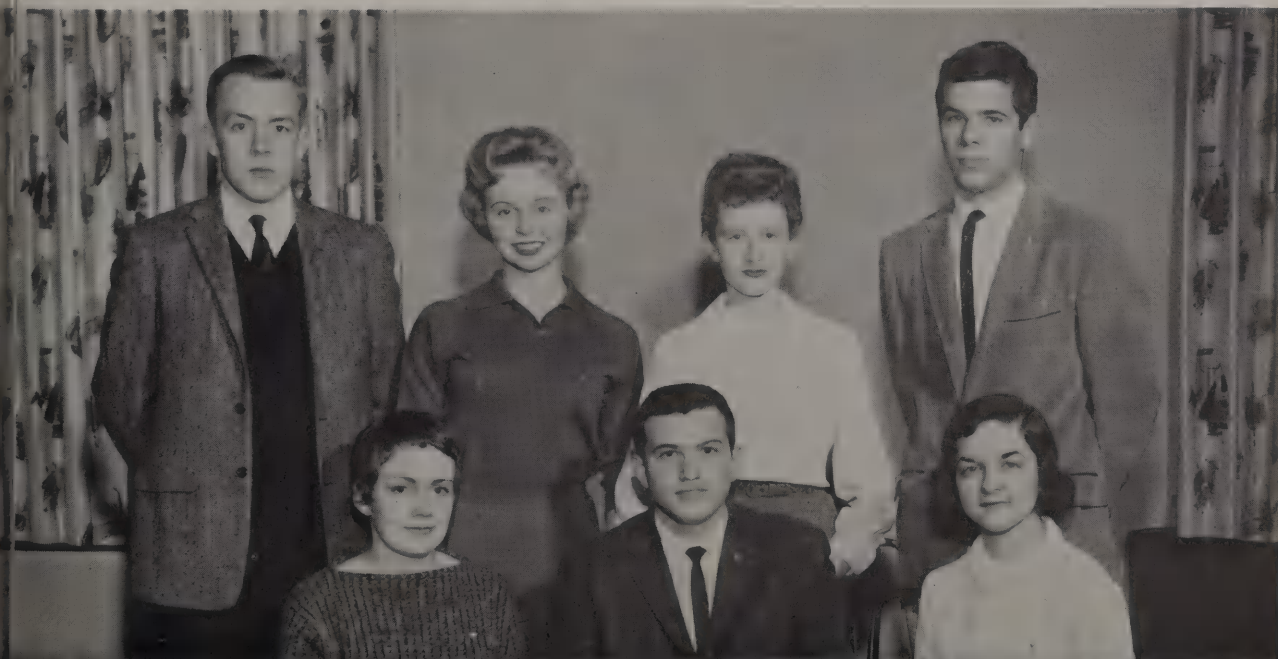

S. McGovern, Treas., D. Stewart, V. Pres., D. Grossman, Pres., A. Ertel, Sec.

Besides supervising its perennial project of a class float for the Homecoming parade, the Freshman Council this year sponsored a Freshman Class Dinner, at which President Umbeck spoke on «Campus Development,» and a Freshman Dance. We would also like to take this space to say a few words about the Sophomore class, which appears at no place in the book. There is a Sophomore class. A nice one, too.

Arts

Through Music and the Theater, the Knox student can travel to wherever he dreams to go. He can be himself or that other more desirous being. If only there were more Time . . .

Major Productions

Main stage productions consisted of two translations of contemporary continental plays and a modern American version of an ancient Japanese legend.

"Six Characters"—l to r: C. Hoffman, D. Eggert, D. Gustafson.

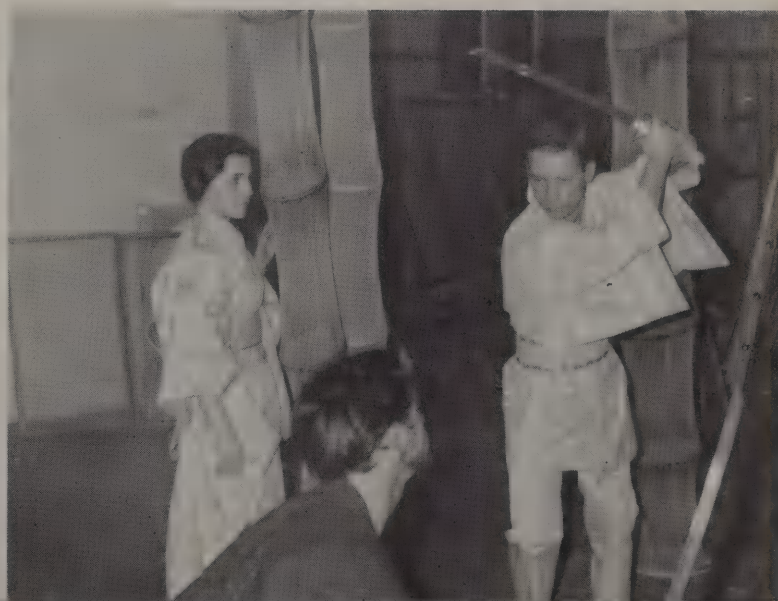

"Roshomon"—H. Kohler, M. Thompson.

"Six Characters"—l to r: C. Smith, J. Stanfa, D. Eggert.

Since Knox is an educational institution, Dr. Chase likes to give as much as he can of an education, to the students. The three plays presented were an education to the actors and the audience. «Doctor Knock» showed the difficulties of translating a period comedy. «Six Characters in Search of an Author» was taken on tour. «Roshomon» was student directed.

"Roshomon"—M. Thompson, H. Kohler, M. Thompson.

Workshops

"An Act of Innocence"—l to r: S. Klinger, C. Bourne, G. Binnie, R. Lear, S. Klein.

Four plays written and produced by Knox students were presented on the Adelphi stage this year. «Like the Last Rose» is a three act play by Maury Klein ('60) and was directed by Rich Fulton. «An Act of Innocence,» by Dave Lindberg, was directed by Barbara Lee.

"Like the Last Rose"—l to r: R. Fulton, T. Chockley, V. Clay, R. Wier, D. Stark, D. Hafele.

"Greensleeves Magic" directed by Nicky Parsons.

Two other original one acts were «Harpy,» written and directed by Mike Thompson, and «Melisande,» written by Carol Kuo and directed by Ron Wier.

The annual children's play for Galesburg elementary school children was presented on the Knox stage, which made for greatly improved facilities.

Phi Beta

Invaluable service has been rendered by these «seat finders» of the Knox Theater. Several outstanding Phi Betas excelled on the stage in major acting and directing positions.

SAI

«The Daughters of a great and singing nation» through their recitals, musicales, and concerts made the Knox students realize that life extends past academic burdens on to finer things.

The Knox

One does not need to explain what a college choir does. But there is more to choir membership than giving concerts—and very good ones at that. This is the one organization where everyone works for the same purpose and enjoys it immensely. Friends are made here. And a new language.

College Choir

A very successful tour!

Orchestra

Under the enthusiastic leadership of Harry Gilbert Trythall, the Knox-Galesburg Symphony Orchestra has delighted many large audiences with presentations of Handel's «Messiah» and Mendelssohn's «Elijah.» Highlighting the year was the appearance of Alcestis Perry, guest violin artist.

Concert Wind Ensemble

Entertaining a chapel audience in February, adding music to our football and basketball games, and traveling to Quincy for a concert in April were the main activities of this abbreviated group of musicians.

Women's Ensemble

Comprised of members of the Knox College Choir, this ensemble sings at choir concerts and at meetings of various clubs and organizations in and around Galesburg. Their repertoire includes anything from popular to classical music. In practicing, they are under the direction of Creston Klingman.

Knox Players

Started this year, the Knox Players consist of people interested in the theatre. Members are those people who work on the stage or those who work on the various crews.

Greeks

Entering into fraternity life is probably one of the most debated issues at Knox. Those within feel that there is something to be gained above and beyond "man's social needs." Ask them about it.

Panhellenic Council

Headed this year by Suzanne Summers, the Council undertook the task of orienting a new-Rush procedure for the sorority system. At the time of this printing, we were still waiting to hear what would become of the faculty suggestion of a no-Rush procedure.

Front: D. Hafele, P. Dorroh, S. Summers, C. Johnson, N. Specht. Back: J. Streseau, K. Hill, J. Elfline, D. Melby, B. Cady.

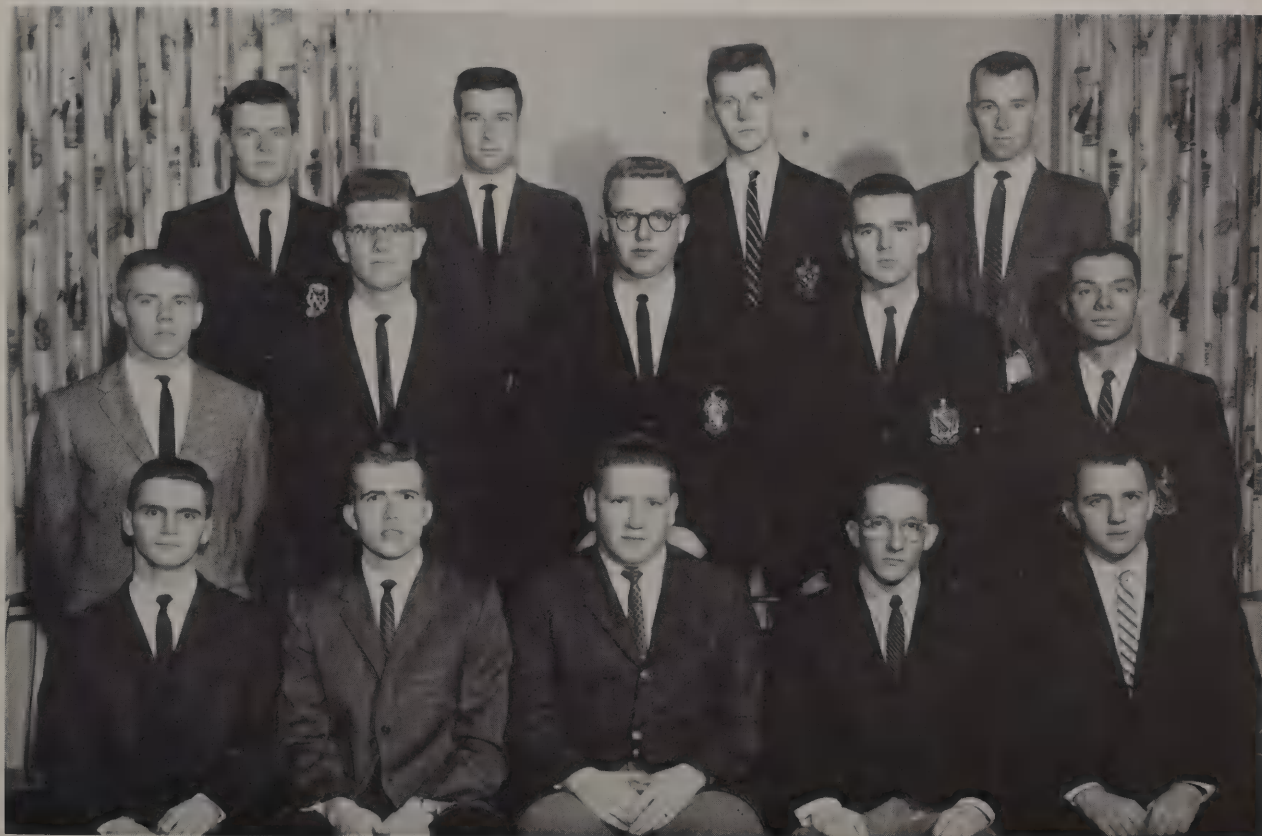

Interfraternity Council

IFC is the organization which regulates fraternity rushing (if anything can «regulate» the male rush.) Along with the Panhellenic Council, it organizes other Greek activities such as the Cancer Drive.

This year ADE changed to the Alpha Delts by removing the altar and collection plates, being the best songsters ever to close the BV, pinning many coeds, and winning four I.M. trophies. The rush of Rush ended when infamous personages were added to the ranks. Socially the Alpha Delts moved out with a hayride party, the Rose Formal, the Sherwood Forest party, and many «Vic» parties. Melodrama was found in the Alpha Delt house as «Croley Heist» Brummet, «Gus Melon» Kovarik, «Ed Heddler» Scheffler, «Artimis the Groveler» Marsh and others made fun of life in that cruel world beyond the Galesburg city limits (which scares hell out of most of us). President Callecod and all the brothers can be proud of the part each one had in making this the most enjoyable and fun-type year in Alpha Delt history.

Herlocker, T. Freeman, J. Belson.

We'll think of you often, Alpha Chapter of 1960-61. The jolly togetherness of Homecoming—poor soggy Sharvy and the treasured National Award; Hallowe'en and those pesky spider-webs; rushing like mad to win the best pledge class ever, darling imps who survived their pledge duties and came up smiling to help us keep up the tradition of many, many activities, both in and out of Alpha Xi. After initiation—ssh, it was a surprise!—came Spring, Founders' Day, the sophisticated formal, and then bidding the Seniors goodbye—but only until summer, our slumber party again, our chain-letter, our Good Sisters.

A great year at Xi. We'll remember: «Ma» Butt moving in as house-mother . . . Student Senate President Burgess winning the Hunter Trophy . . . House President Johnson's social legislation . . . Pete Nixdorff teaching us how to play monopoly . . . «kidnapping» Brazilian Prime Minister Palmroth . . . pledging eighteen of the best . . . Mike Thompson dominating the Knox stage . . . giving all that blood to the Red Cross . . . «Hop» winning his ninth letter . . . Bud returning from his sabbatical . . . our four team captains . . . an infamous Pajama Party . . . a great Go to Hell party . . . a fired-up Duke chasing squirrels . . . «Chops» unable to tear himself away . . . «Goss» preparing to lead Illinois' Oldest Fraternity into another successful year.

Fitting into the Knox Idea of the sophisticated Tri Delt, Epsilon members were seen as Homecoming Princesses and as Military Ball Queen. Despite our reserved manner, nineteen far-sighted girls found out who the Tri Delts were in time to pledge. Not so Victorian were the winter party with a can can, the Senior picnic, and the Spring Formal. These lead to the discovery that being a lady has its own particular set of advantages.

Delta Zeta was where work, activities, and good times were present—YWCA, GALE, Adelphi, Curtain Call, choir, Young Republicans and Democrats. There was the fall party to start off a year filled with happy memories, with apple cider and the apple-dance couple. Rush brought fifteen new sisters and a pledge class that shines in the light of the Lamp. Pledges—paddles hidden in the walls, fake walk-outs, bridge, an over-night walk-out with actives that missed the third balcony and drove to Knoxville. Success at seven A. M., turnabout day and lighting of cigarettes, initiation with shiny pins and new voices on Monday night. Who can forget the ferry boat ride, the black shimmy dress, Mee-Ling in red and white, the Rose Formal at Lake Bracken with soft music, a queen? A wonderful year to remember in Delta Zeta.

The «beev» Phis customarily came through during rush by «snarfing up» the largest pledge class of nineteen and «gleeping» one more in the darkness. Nine of the men bolstered the Siwash Gridders with six starters moving the oblique spheroid. Brother Al's blazing skill as float chairman along with his historical notoriety illustrated the new heights of maturity achieved by the men of Phi Delta Theta. Socially the Phis continued to move out. (Who were those rats at the Bowery party?) The sword and shield was seen over female hearts and that serenade almost came through. All right!

Fiji Seniors, hopelessly indoctrinated by the brotherhood* concept, leave behind one of the strongest fraternity chapters in the country. This year, under football captain and leader Stagg, a year of Grouting, Everetts, the Jordan champagne bowl, Milt, a pampered sewer, a church walk-out, and assorted Green Oaks orgies, saw the long-standing Fiji tradition carried on.

*A term considered obsolete by prevailing campus cynicism.

It all happened in one year. Homecoming eve, and a single light bulb; three shivering mermaids and a slightly damp dragon. Zabbie's convention experiences—minute by minute. Hay! The rather unusual experience which culminated in the pledging of sixteen wonderful girls. Christmas carols, pop corn, a fire. The typical Galesburg evening of the walkout, actives with slushy ice-filled shoes—a line-up of terror-stricken pledges. This year for the first time, Ronoh was awarded. Fun at the pledge party romantically called «The St. Valentine's Day Massacre.» A special Hawaiian «spaghetti» dinner, melodious singing, sap running through the trees, carnation making. Were those table cloths ever returned, Kitty? «Inspiration,» happiness, and the best of luck to the Seniors. A year.

The Pi Phi spirit inspired Beta Delta on in '60-'61. Queen Barb Cady and a first place float brought Homecoming honors. After the Pow-Wow, arrow girls settled down to serious things—hash at Mimi's. Mary Karr produced twenty-three pledges who gave Sue Shea a hard time—the exam week walk-out, spaghetti-splattered faces. Despite Mary Sue's study hall, Pi Phis won a turkey shoot and a silver service, worked in the theater, joined some honoraries, held campus offices, and wore black to Mother Bickerdyke's funeral given by the twenty-three plus two. February saw President Linda Karger relinquish the gavel to «Twitchy» Parsons. The Senior picnic at Lake Storey closed a successful year.

This has been an outstanding year at Sigma Nu. Under the direction of Commander Stratton and a frequently changing executive committee, the Fraternity enjoyed a successful rushing and pledging season. The winter Camelot party was a great success and was surpassed only by the best White Rose formal and Alumni Celebration within recent memory. One of the old traditions was lost this year, however, when we won the I.M. wrestling competition. Stratton graduated too.

The year 1960-61 will long be remembered by the fraters of Tau Kappa Epsilon. It was a year which saw the accomplishment of so many things. What Teke will ever forget the incomparable «Genie» Homecoming float . . . the late hours of the Cinema Club . . . the convergence of the west and the east in the dorm . . . the feathers, firecrackers, and police during pledging . . . the «B» League basketball championship . . . the Roman «Orgy» . . . the three temperance leaguers of Phi Beta Kappa . . . the pantie and bra salesman . . . the popularity of poor little Angeline . . . and all the other memories. Yes, indeed, it was a great year for TKE.

Varsity Football

A. Partin, H. Knosher

The 1960 football season was one marked by many close games and a dire need for the all-important extra point. The Siwashers' largest losing margin was 13 points. They scored only 6 points less than their opponents for the entire season. Knox's strong-point was the defense, which allowed opponents only 86 or 87 points, 2nd lowest total in the conference. Thrills were many. Of the two games ending in a tie, the final score was made in the last 30 seconds of play. Glen Weyhrich and Bill Boyd were chosen to the All-Conference teams. The team chose Gordon Stagg as Most Valuable Player, and Karl Nienhuis and Gordon Stagg as Outstanding Seniors.

A season that started with a bang in Northfield, Minnesota when the «Si-wash» defeated Carleton by nineteen points was destined to become one which held only a few other bright spots. Working under the handicaps of inexperience, injuries to key players, and a first year coach, the Knoxmen showed their true worth by never failing to make the full effort regardless of the odds. With several of this year's men returning and a better than average freshman team, Coach Knosher and his squad will be working hard to better their six and sixteen mark next year.

Varsity Wrestling

Plagued by a lack of team members, the Knox wrestling squad did their best in the Conference wrestling meets. George Vance placed third in the Conference meet, the only Knox wrestler to place. Coach Partin used Freshman wrestlers in meets to prepare them for the varsity team next year. Senior lettermen leaving are Byron Johnson and Pete Johanson.

Varsity Track

Spiriting the Knox Thinclads were two sophomores of «fantastic potential»—Gene Crandall and Jim Seago. At the Cornell Relays, Crandall ran a 50.1 four-forty, and Seago set an all-school record in the high jump at Chicago. Other outstanding contenders on the team were Bill Boyd in the dash, Steve Hawley with the javelin, and Bill Martin in the half.

Varsity Baseball

The promising Siwash baseballers started fast with two crushing victories over Chicago and a decisive triumph over defending champion Coe. They then dropped three straight, and stood with a 3 and 3 record at the time of this writing. Coach Knosher's regulars were J. B. White, Will Bandes, Cole Pierce, Dan Littell, and Paul Schoaff in the infield; Bob Kucik behind the plate; and Todd Allen, Bill Wingader, Jay Graening, and Darrell Kincaid in the outfield. Mound chores were handled by Al Knight, Karl Nienhuis, Tom Bice, and Dan Littell.

Varsity Swimming

Carrying one of the smallest squads since its existence on the Knox scene, the swimming team swam its way through a victorious season finishing with a 6-3 dual meet record and once again top honors at the Viking Olympics. Knox was outpointed by only Grinnell and Carleton at the Midwest Conference Meet where Norm Porter finished far ahead of the field in the diving competition remaining unbeaten for the second consecutive year.

Varsity Tennis

l to r: L. Wright, J. Cutright, P. Pippinger, P. Finck, B. LaGrua, B. Fay.

With only two returning lettermen, Brooks La Grua and Bill Fay, the Siwash netmen did not expect to be a strong team in the conference this year. Four promising sophomores Jack Cutright, Phil Pippinger, Peter Finck and Lynn Wright, have provided depth to the team and Coach Dean Trevor's squad hopes to make a creditable showing in the conference race.

Varsity Golf

The 1961 edition of the Knox College golf team contained the winning blend of experienced veterans and capable newcomers. Returning lettermen from last year's squad (10-3-1 record) include Captain Ed Orgorzalek, Pat Graham, and Steve Klinger. Bolstered by Bob Schmid, Knox's finest golfer of recent years, Tom Hoffmaster, and Bill Dewey, the Siwash linksters were undefeated with a couple of weeks remaining on their schedule. They have set their sights on the approaching Conference Championship which will be held at Knox this year.

Cross Country

The end of the season found the Cross Country team in the middle of the conference with four wins and three losses. Senior letter winners were Bave Brummett and Allan Spence. Other letter winners who promise to be back next year are Sophomores Gene Crandall, Bill Martin, and George Sell.

Philip Burgess

Hunter Trophy

The Hunter Trophy is awarded annually to the Senior who is outstanding in athletics and in academics. Phil has lettered in swimming and football. He was also a teaching assistant in the Political Science department.

"K" Club

The letterman's club at Knox is better known as the «K» Club for obvious reasons. Perhaps it would be more distinguishing for the non-lettermen to wear some distinctive apparel—at least there would not be quite as many members.

Football

The football team's schedule of three games brought two losses and one tie, but a promise of good backfield material for the varsity.

Basketball

Two near misses reduced a promising team's record to two wins and three losses on the basketball floor. For future varsity teams there is good material.

A stylized, blue-toned illustration of a campus scene. It features various buildings of different shapes and sizes, some with multiple stories. There are also trees represented by simple line drawings. A church spire is visible in the upper right. The entire illustration is rendered in a light blue color against a white background.

People

More than the buildings and the endowments for the college are the people that inhabit it. After a time here, one is certainly well versed in the Humanities.

Administration

PRESIDENT Sharvy G. Umbeck is often called the «man with the vision.» More and more are others beginning to see the reality of this vision. Much space has been covered by the new Knox since he took office. We who leave hope that there will be a happy ending to the vision too.

The guiding light for the vision is the BOARD OF TRUSTEES, a group of far-sighted and well-informed alumni who give unselfishly of all they have to try to ensure a liberal and fine education for all the future Knox alumni.

Administration

Running a college is not an easy task—ask any one of those pictured on these pages. Keeping track of who is living where now, wondering where we will get that $25,000 for the Fine Arts Building, or out-bidding Monmouth for a prospective student is all in a day's work for someone. Informals

A liberal education should improve a student's capacity for intelligent living in a society that is becoming increasingly complicated through highly specialized technologies. There should be developed an awareness of those things which add to and enrich living. Knox, for the most part, does develop this much needed awareness. It is then up to its graduates (and undergraduates) to utilize it.

Class of 1961

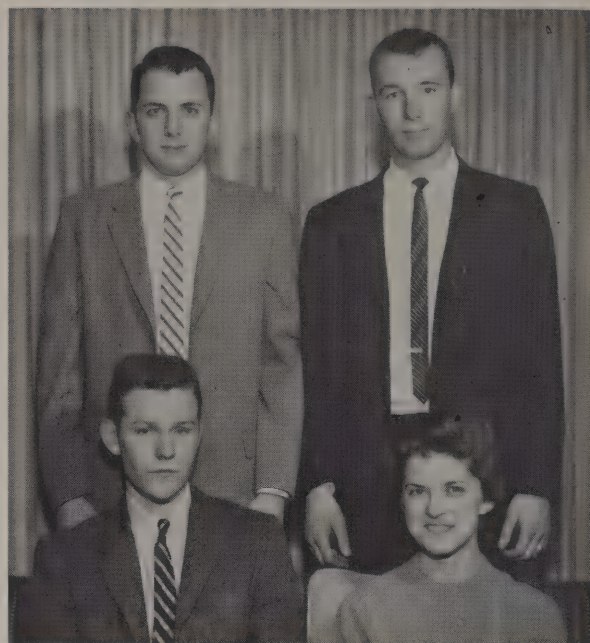

We look back on four unusual years. We have felt probably more than any other class the effects of the lean transition years between Old Siwash, the country club, and the Mighty Knox, Harvard of the Midwest. Those of us who remain have disproven the old adage about all work and no play having an effect on Jack's personality structure, while developing our «skills, understanding, attitudes, and appreciations» under the principle of «spare the rule book and spoil the child.»

Although we mechanically follow the crowd to the B.V. for our monotonous evenings of sophisticated drinking, we can still remember singing around the tables of the Neuters' College Inn. Although we can appreciate the improved academic rating of the campus-centered Phi Delts, we hate to have lost the spirit generated by the North Kellogg group. Although we must, of course, sneer at any expressions of school or fraternity enthusiasm, our class was the last to carry on the Old Main lock-out tradition. Yes, we entered as a spirited group, as well as the «brightest ever.» We seem to be leaving as apathetic, sophisticated worshipers of the almighty Grade-Index. But are we really?

Back Row: J. Stamos, V. Pres., J. Gorby, Treas.

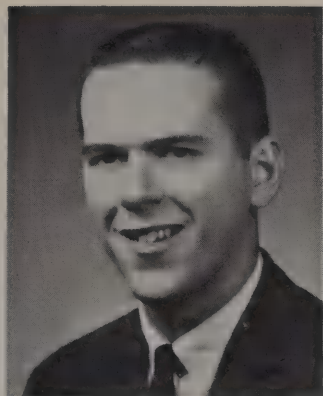

One parting word of advice. We know so much more than as high school seniors we thought the faculty knew, than as Freshmen we ever thought of, than as Sophomores we thought we knew ourselves, than as Juniors we thought we could know, that we feel justified in this. We have ourselves set you a good example. Follow it. Be like us. Have fun, work and play. And so shalt thou too graduate.

Front Row: B. Cliver, L. Lenz, S. Summers, K. Calvert, S. Mitchell, S. Westerfield, M. Fox.

Class of 1962

The Juniors have passed on the college highway, three fruitful years of contentment, work, tradition. As a class, they are as much a class as the Seniors. Through tradition are they pictured here, and they are content. They have worked hard to become Seniors, and so they shall. (Most Seniors are glad to relinquish their position anyway!)

Torn by no internal strife, knowing no clique or clan, with most of its members in good and regular standing, not given to beering, just and temperate, harmless, dear to the Professors' hearts, envied by all students (except the Seniors), the class stands beyond reproach. May they prosper and be happy and someday graduate.

The Spirit of "Old Siwash"

Rich in historical tradition are Knox College and Galesburg. Keeping bright the memories of the midwestern pioneers is the Hotel Custer's Homestead Room. Cheery and glowing with warmth from the open fireplace, the Homestead features authentic old china, oaken furniture and ancient firearms. Best of all, in this room flourished the finest expression of generations of Schimmel family devotion to the culinary arts. May we expect you for dinner soon?
